

SQUIRE
PATTON BOGGS

Privacy World

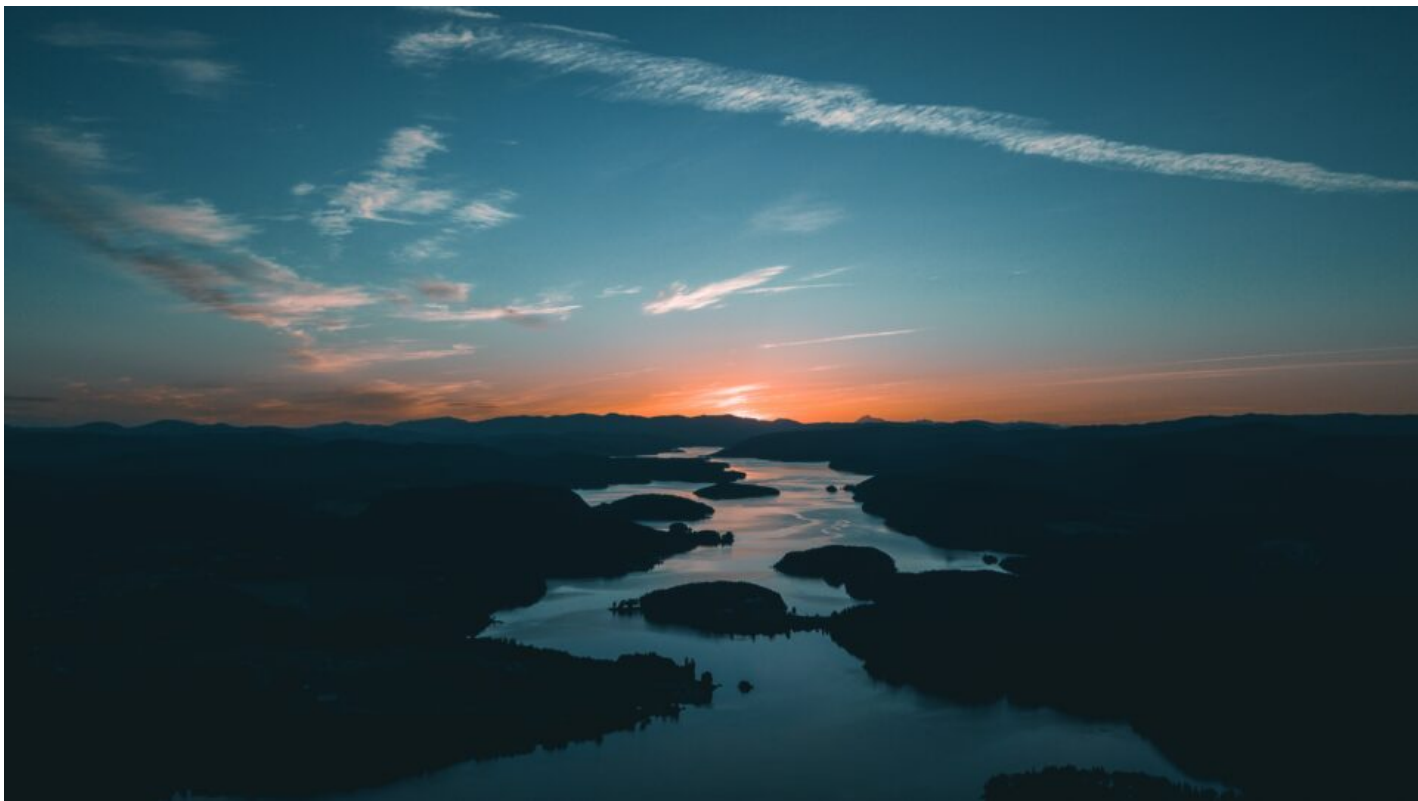

Keeping you informed on the evolving law on data privacy, security and innovation.

Search results for:

JAMS mass arbitration

JAMS mass arbitration

SEARCH

Arbitration Provider JAMS Creates New Mass Arbitration Procedures

By Kristin Bryan & James Brennan on May 16, 2024

Earlier this month, arbitration services provider JAMS announced that it created a new set of Mass Arbitration Procedures and Guidelines (“Mass Procedures”) for use in mass arbitrations. Like competitor American Arbitration Association’s (“AAA”) update to its mass arbitration supplementary rules (“AAA Supplementary Rules”) earlier this year, JAMS’s new procedures include some features that may mitigate some of the more abusive practices common to mass arbitrations, but do not fully eliminate the risks posed by mass arbitrations. Read on for an overview of these new procedures and the accompanying fee schedule.

Continue Reading

Privacy World Week in Review

By Kristin Bryan on June 3, 2024

In case you missed it, below are recent posts from Privacy World covering the latest developments on data privacy, security and innovation. Please reach out to the authors if you are interested in additional information.

Singapore Publishes Generative AI Model Governance Framework | Privacy World

FCC Chair Proposes Investigation of Potential Disclosure Requirements for AI-Generated Content in TV and Radio Political Ads | Privacy World

Singapore Ramps Up Data Protection Enforcement – Five Useful Takeaways | Privacy World

Global Insights on the Evolution of AI | Privacy World

All Eyes on AI: Colorado Governor Throws Down the Gauntlet on AI Regulation After Colorado General Assembly Passes the Nation's First AI Law | Privacy World

Illinois Legislature to Amend BIPA to Overrule Illinois Supreme Court Damages Decision | Privacy World

Arbitration Provider JAMS Creates New Mass Arbitration Procedures | Privacy World

OneTrust DataGuidance Publishes Team SPB's Comparison of the Kentucky, Maryland and Nebraska Consumer Privacy Laws - Part 1 | Privacy World

Are You Ready for July 1? Florida, Oregon, and Texas on Deck | Privacy World

Privacy World Week in Review

By Kristin Bryan on May 20, 2024

In case you missed it, below are recent posts from Privacy World covering the latest developments on data privacy, security and innovation. Please reach out to the authors if you are interested in additional information.

Arbitration Provider JAMS Creates New Mass Arbitration Procedures | Privacy World

OneTrust DataGuidance Publishes Team SPB's Comparison of the Kentucky, Maryland and Nebraska Consumer Privacy Laws – Part 1 | Privacy World

Are You Ready for July 1? Florida, Oregon, and Texas on Deck | Privacy World

Singapore Looks to Tighten Corporate Disclosures of Directors' Personal Data | Privacy World

Employers and Insurance Companies Continue To Be Targeted with Deluge of Claims Under the Illinois Genetic Information Privacy Act | Privacy World

FCC Fines National Mobile Providers for Sharing Customer Location Information: What Are the Lessons and What to Expect in this New Era of FCC Mobile Data Privacy Oversight | Privacy World

Congress Could Disrupt Prevailing State Law Approach to Online Ads | Privacy World

Squire Patton Boggs Lawyers to Present on Several Upcoming Webinars and Events | Privacy World

EU – U.S. Data Privacy Framework FAQs

By Julia B. Jacobson, Sasha Kiosse, Alan Friel, Charles Helleputte

Last updated: January 29, 2024

I. BACKGROUND ON DPF

Your Question	Our Answer
1. What are Privacy Shield and Safe Harbor?	The Privacy Shield was an agreement between the EU, Switzerland and U.S. under which U.S. businesses could earn a certification that allowed them to

...

